Announcements

Pathways To Teaching students should remain at PHS today and report to room 202 for class.

PHS is hosting its first Locks for Love event during the Winter Ball Assembly! Locks of Love provides real-hair wigs for women suffering hair loss due to cancer treatment. Thousands of people across the U.S. have set a shining example by cutting and donating their hair. Check your email for more details or to sign up for the event.

Clubs & Sports

The Pirate Bowling team defeated the Mukwanago Indians last night in a 5-2 victory. They face them again on Saturday at Village Bowl in Menominee Falls. The team was lead by Seniors Tommie Redmond and Morgan Hanson.

Last weekend at the JV State Challenge Wrestling Tournament, Brandon Nutt claimed the bronze medal while Josh Keskinen placed 5th. On Wednesday, Hunter Sanchez and Ryan Novak earned victories against Pius and the team claimed a 70-12 victory. Your Pirates Varsity Wrestling Team remains undefeated in the conference and will host its final Woodland opponents this Saturday. Wrestling will begin at 9:30 AM when Pewaukee faces Greenfield, Cudahy and New Berlin.

The Junior class is partnering with BW3 for a fundraiser for this year's Prom, themed A Night to Remember. Check your email or take a picture of the signs around the school, and show it each time you go to BW3 between now and February 12. We need money for Prom so please help us out!
